"THE BEST YEARS

In September of 1940, we, a troop of small children clinging to our mothers' hands, swarmed into the beautiful "big new" red school—Howard School. We were met by Mrs. Mary Keaton and Mrs. Sarah Stamps who now direct the destinies of our small brothers and sisters. This phase of "readin', 'riting, and 'rithmetic" lasted for six years.

One of the things we most remember about our grammar school days was the sesquicentennial held in 1946. Sixth graders, we were proud to be chosen to participate in this pageant. In costumes of red, white, and blue we formed a flag of the United States, while "Miss Tennessee" was added to the union.

Then came the great day when we crossed the halls to the "high school side"—seventh graders—proud junior highs. We were joined by the classes from Lipscomb and Fall. A new school life began—home rooms, a different teacher for each subject, and long anticipated "gym." The thrills and excitement of variety shows, plays, and ball games were now ours.

Seventh, eighth, ninth—these years soon passed and commencement was near. We celebrated by having a Freshman picnic at Sycamore Lodge.

Commencement was beautiful—soft shades of pink, yellow, orchid, blue, and green formed a rainbow—promising bright years ahead.

Tanned and happy, we began our Sophomore year under the guidance of Miss Karr and Miss Barker. School became decidedly more democratic with the organization of a Student Council.

In May, we chartered a bus for our big celebration at Youth Incorporated Country Place. Although the weatherman served a week-long rain, he failed to dampen our spirits. We had a wonderful time.

Everyone had big plans for summer. Ann Williams, Peggy Booth, Mary Frances Ballard, Leon Ruben, Johnny Miller, James Jett, were chosen to attend the "Hands Across the Sea" camp. Later that summer Johnny and James represented Howard at Boys' State.

1950—we were Juniors. James Jett, Joy Williams, Ann Williams, Peggy Booth, Frances Darrah, and Betty Jo Owen were among those invited to join the newly organized "Howard Chapter of the National Honor Society."

On October 25, our hearts thrilled at the sound of the old Howard Bell, which had called to school our Mothers and Dads in years past. At the same time, all over the world, other bells were ringing—for this was the "Crusade for Freedom."

OF OUR LIVES"

At Christmas, we Juniors and Seniors, collaborated on a "rip roarin'" party in the Library. Although it was fun, our greatest pleasure was filling the baskets for a needy family.

Our Junior year was full of excitement and hard work—a gay, glittering, star-studded talent show to earn the wherewithal for a glamorous Junior Prom—a Cinderella ball—from cinder hearth to pumpkin coach. The story of Cinderella in murals, painted by Walter Armistead, James Jett, Vernon Southerland, Johnny Miller, and Douglas Tenpenny transformed the library into fairyland. When the clock struck twelve, the only glass slipper found was sorrowfully packed away in the prop room.

After the excitement of the prom, everyone was looking forward to June and vacation, especially Betty Jo Owen, who had been chosen to represent Howard at Volunteer Girls' State.

Back to school in the fall and hard at work again. Marilyn Littlejohn received a twenty-five dollar check from the Lion Oil Company for her essay, "What I Want from Education."

Peggy Booth, as Victoria Borge, was awarded the prize at the Penny Carnival Variety Show. Her election as President of the Inter-High Student Councils of Davidson County was an honor to Peggy and to Howard School.

As the Yuletide season rolled around, everyone began making plans for the Christmas festivities. The Junior and Senior Choruses joined forces to present a beautiful program, "The Song of Christmas." On the gayer side were our plans for the Christmas party. We again decided to fill a food basket for a needy family. Our plans for both were very successful.

In December the honor students were chosen. Joy Williams received the D. A. R. Medal and Leon Ruben the Civitan Award. Walking away with the scholastic achievements for the Senior Class were Betty Jo Owen, Valedictorian, and Joy William, Salutatorian.

Graduation spring proved to be a hectically busy time—the annual went to press on March 1. But the pressure was not off. The senior play a delightful comedy, "The Red Headed Step Child," was ready to go into production; the pageant, "Out of a Dream," commemorating the twelfth anniversary of Howard was being written—festival music and graduation music were being practiced. Finally June 5 arrived. We graduated in caps and gowns, the girls lovely in white, the boys distinguished in green, our school colors and class colors as well. We were very proud to graduate from Howard High, the first class in the Nashville City schools to complete our secondary education under one roof.

NOSTALGIA

We leave dear Howard School
The class of '52.
We take with us the smiles and joys
That we have shared with you.
Our minds with richest blessings from thee flow,
As down the road of life we onward go.

Let's take a minute now to reminisce
About the things we soon shall miss—
Intriguing plays, glittering proms, and the halls conjested.
The cheering crowds that paced our teams to many victories.
The band, gym, stadium, the many dear familiar faces,
These we soon shall miss when we're in other places.

Down the aisle we march in cap and gown,
For now we have relived and written down
Recaptured thoughts and cherished memories
That others too will know in coming centuries.
We leave, but never will thy memory die,
You shall live on forever, Howard High!

THE FUTURE

"Taxi! Taxi!"

"Take me to the rocket port. I'm in a dreadful hurry!" I exclaimed. After I had settled myself comfortably in the cab for the long drive ahead, I took a good look at the driver.

"Jimmy Osment! I thought you looked familiar. Why on earth are you way out here in California? The last time I saw you was ten years ago when we were graduated from Howard High School."

"Bill Craighead and I own a chain of cab companies," Jimmy answered. "I came out here to try out this new jet cab we bought from Charlie Layne."

"Are you taking a trip or just meeting someone at the rocket port?"

"I'm meeting Sonia Cole. I'm sure you remember her. She is a famous poet now, you know. Betty Sandefur invited her to be the guest speaker at the National P.-T.A. meeting this year. Betty is president of the association. Betty Jo Owen is vice-president. Mary Smith is secretary, and Virginia Moore (I can't remember their married names) is treasurer of the group."

"It is amazing the way I have been hearing about the class of '52 lately," Jimmy said. I saw Harrietta Vaughn's picture in Life. She's singing at Carnegie Hall next week with Dorothy Tankersley as her accompanist. I often hear Douglas Belcher's quartet on T. V."

"I hear that Bob Hope retired when Coulter Baggett got a job with T. V."

"Would you like to turn on the auto-television?"

Marilyn Littlejohn, The Woman Who Looks at the News, will be on in a few seconds."

"Please do," I replied.

He turned it on and a picture of Johnny Miller flashed on the screen. He was saying, "You have just heard and seen 'My Friend Irma.' Irma Peterson was played by Shirley Alley, Jane Stacey by Betty Cobb, and Al by Harold Pugh. The script was written by Glenn Jackson."

After the commercial, Marilyn appeared on the screen. "Scientist Peggy Booth has just released her formula for a no-doze tablet that will enable you to stay wide awake for a whole month without ill effect. It was tried and proved by Gene Steele."

"Flash! President Leon Ruben has just left for Nashville, Tennessee, to see the big football game between the Rebels and North High School. He will stay at the home of the Rebel Coach, Donald Atwood; Roland Holleman is the Yank Coach."

"A new record has been set! Joyce Hall swam the English Channel and returned in sixteen hours."

"Congratulations to Colonel Alton Brown, Second Lieutenants Thomas Brown, Charles Campbell, and Billy Denny, who were decorated by the president last week."

"And now Mary Frances Ballard will give us a word from our sponsor."

Mary Frances began, "Have you got those stay-at-home blues because you have children? If so, get in touch with Ann Williams' Baby Sitters, Inc. Let Baby Sitters, Inc. take care of your little problems."

Then the announcer returned and said, "Next we have Estelle Coulter giving you a few household hints, but first—Are you having trouble with your income tax report? Let W. B. Gambill figure it—"

By that time we had reached our destination and I rushed over to Sonia.

"Why Jean Notgrass! They didn't tell me you were meeting me," she exclaimed. "What a delightful surprise! I seem to be running into all my old schoolmates today. Claudia Alley and Marie Crosslin were stewardesses on the rocket ship and Billy Harvey (a foreign missionary now) was one of the passengers. This is his first trip home since he went to Mars four years ago. During the trip I was reading a newspaper edited by Joy Williams and learned that Jimmy Ragsdale, architect, and Charles Patton, engineer, are building a new hospital on Mars. Doctor Vernon Southerland will be the chief of staff and Frances Darrah, Peggy Hix, and Norma Kidwell will be the chief nurses."

"No," she answered, "But I did hear about James Jett's winning an international prize for poetry. Peggy Estes, Fay Dillard, and Peggy Sealy are competing for the title of Miss Secretary of '62. Hilda Sharp's school for secretaries and comptometrists, voted the best in the world, is sponsoring the contest."

"But, here I am talking a mile a minute and you must be dead tired after your long trip. Let's get a cab and go to my home where you can rest until time for the P.-T.A. Meeting."

"Taxi! Taxi!"
